
The Patricia H. Reid Orchestral Fellowships

Opera Australia invites outstanding early career string musicians to be part of The Patricia H. Reid Orchestral Fellowships for 2023.

The Program

The Patricia H. Reid Orchestral Fellowships assist emerging musicians further their career in music performance. This world-class fellowship program equips the next generation of Australian string musicians with vital professional skills and provides a pathway into orchestral careers. The program is generously supported by the Patricia H. Reid Endowment Foundation.

Fellows join the orchestra in rehearsals and performances of main stage opera and ballet with Australia's leading performing arts companies over a 12-month period. This invaluable experience introduces young string players to the required skills and knowledge of the repertoire. Fellows also receive mentoring from members of the Opera Australia Orchestra. Over the course of the year, the Fellowship provides professional development in auditioning, performance preparation, chamber music and sustainable careers.

In 2023, Opera Australia is offering Fellowships in violin (2), viola and cello. Fellows receive a $25,000 bursary (inclusive of superannuation) for a minimum 100 calls of rehearsal and performance.
